Overview

North Point Community Church is looking for a gifted individual who will provide vision & leadership to our Family Ministry, creating a safe and positive environment for children, youth and their families to encounter God and grow in his love. He or she will work with volunteer teams to create a Gospel-centered experience where children, youth and/or their families are able to encounter God's love and be transformed by Jesus' life.

This is a full-time, salaried position that reports directly to the Lead Pastor. While there is some flexibility of hours, it is expected that this person will work some evenings and weekends.

In addition, the person hired for this job will need to meet the requirements for working in the Christian & Missionary Alliance, including licencing, agreement with the Statement of Faith, and Call to Excellence.

Interested individuals are invited to submit a resume, references and a two-page vision of what you believe Family Ministry within the local church could look like.

North Point Community Church

Vision. To be a place of sanctuary where imperfect people are being perfected by Jesus' love.

Context. North Point is part of the Christian and Missionary Alliance of Canada and has a rich history. It has been part of the north-central communities of Calgary since it first started as a church-plant out of Harvest Hills Alliance Church. With a young, family-oriented, multi-ethnic congregation of 160+, North Point's Sunday attendance average's around 115 people, with 40+ of those being children, and majority of which are under the age of 7 years old.

North Calgary reflects the diversified suburban sprawl of the city with a variety of ethnicities and incomes represented. The church itself meets in a school in the community of Hidden Valley and is central to a number of other communities on the northern side of Calgary.
